

Kani
Lō
Ka
Leo

THE VOICE THAT REVERBERATES DISCUSSION

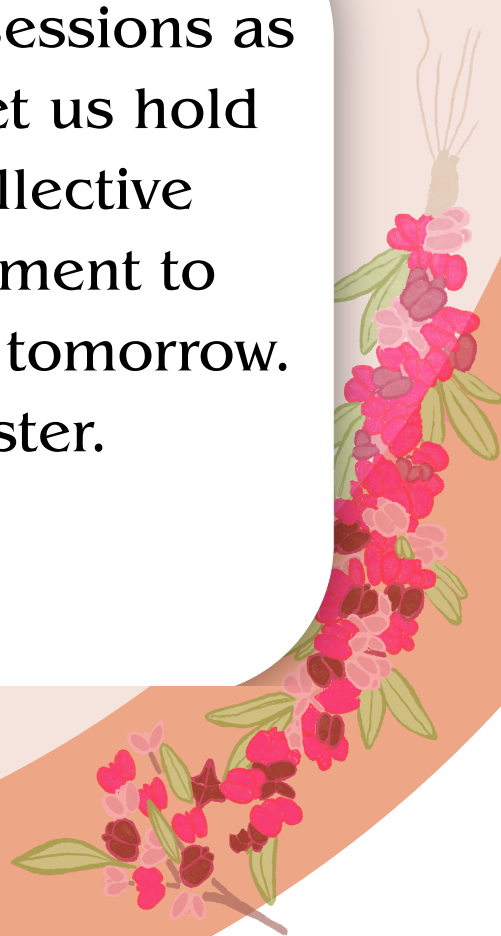

July 17th, 8:30am - 5pm
The Grand Naniloa Hotel,
The Palm Room

Join us for the first of our talk story sessions as we navigate this journey together, let us hold steadfast to the belief that our collective resilience and unwavering commitment to aloha will guide us toward a brighter tomorrow. Please see the QR code to register.

POUHANA
O NĀ
WĀHINE

Pillars of Women

July 17th, 8:30am - 5pm
The Grand Naniloa Hotel,
The Palm Room

The Pouhana O Nā Wāhine (Pouhana) will facilitate a series of discussions titled “Kani Kō Ka Leo: The Voice That Reverberates” to contribute towards the development of partnerships and recommendations to remove systemic barriers facing victims of domestic violence and identify local, Native Hawaiian solutions.

“As we navigate this journey together, let us hold steadfast to the belief that our collective resilience and unwavering commitment to aloha will guide us toward a brighter tomorrow.”

The first discussion, on July 17, 2026, will center the perspective and experiences of Kanaka Maoli (Native Hawaiian) advocates, policymakers, leaders, and artists from across Native Hawaiian communities, the state, and nationwide. Location: The Grand Naniloa Hotel, The Palm Room 8:30 am to 5 pm.

QR Code to Register

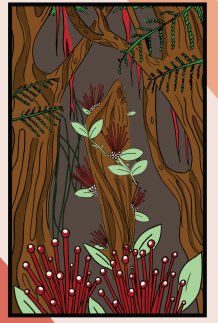

Kani
Kō
Ka
Leo

AGENDA FOR JULY 17, 2026

POUHANA

O NĀ WĀHINE
Pillars of Women

Kani Kō Ka Leo
Discussion Series
The Grand Naniloa Hotel: Palm Room

- 8:30am Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 9:00am Piko Wehena: Centering the space.
Woven in Place, An Invitation to Connect our Stories to Land and Body, Indian Law Resource Center
Facilitated by: Lorilani Keohokalole, Pouhana O Nā Wāhine, and Paula Julian, AKNWRC
- Discussion Session 1: Strengthening the Native
Hawaiian Way of Life
Facilitated by: Dolly Tatofi, Pouhana O Nā Wāhine, and Paula Julian, AKNWRC
- 12:00pm Working Lunch
- Discussion Session 2: Ho'ale ke lepo popolo: fulfilling a Prophecy
Facilitated by: Dolly Tatofi, Pouhana O Nā Wāhine, and Paula Julian, AKNWRC
- 1:30pm Discussion Session 3: Hapai Kuleana i ke Aloha: Love
Carries Responsibility
Facilitated by: Dolly Tatofi, Pouhana O Nā Wāhine, and Paula Julian, AKNWRC
- Discussion Session 4: Ke ala i ka wahine: The pathway of the woman
Facilitated by: Dolly Tatofi, Pouhana O Nā Wāhine, and Paula Julian, AKNWRC
- 4:30pm Next steps
- 5:00pm No'ono'o Pono: Participant reflections/evaluations
Pule Ho'opau